

Jan Pfefer Gan Chabad Preschool

Our preschool families enjoy seeing regularly updated pictures of their children's participation in our activities and programs. Posting photos also provides an easy means to share your child's life with family and friends.

Our school's growth is enhanced by its social media presence. To this end, we will be creating a public social media page where we can share information about our school and photos of learning and activities. We care about your child's privacy and safety. Children's names will never be used on public social media. Photos will always be screened before being shared. We appreciate your understanding.

In an effort to ensure that we meet your family's privacy preferences, Gan Chabad Preschool will not include individual pictures of your child unless we receive written permission.

Gan Chabad retains permission to post and publish group and class photos. As mentioned above, children will not be personally identified on public social media.

Please check the appropriate box for your family's privacy preference. Sign and return.
